

Rev. Brett Jones

Rev. Brett Jones has served as National Superintendent since November 2020. He is currently the Senior Minister at East City Wesleyan in East Auckland. serving in this role since February 2023. Brett and his wife Kristen have been part of 5 church plants – 3 as participants including East City Wesleyan (2000), Watermark (Wesleyan), Grand Haven, Michigan (2003) and cession|community (2004) and 2 as part of sending churches.

In his former life he worked as a lawyer and holds an MBA from Henley Management College. He worked as a strategic consultant to churches and faith-based organisations through MUSE Strategic Consulting from 2002 - 2019.

Brett loves to cook and is mastering the art of outdoor cooking in his wood fired pizza oven! He is a sports fanatic who never misses All Blacks or Black Caps games and will watch most anything competitive. Brett is an avid reader, music lover and “endurer” of exercise.